Boy, 13, Dog-Bite Victim, Glad Dog Had Rabies Shots

A Torrance family and a 13-year-old boy were grateful this week that there is such a thing as rabies shots for dogs.

Six days after the boy was bitten by a neighborhood dog which could not be located, the family was ready to consent to the painful Pasteur treatment for their child.

The day of the treatment however, the dog was spotted and it was discovered that he had had rabies shots, thus eliminating the danger of the bite.

Object of the bite was Ronald Coleman, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan K. Coleman of 1908 Middlebrook ave.

The boy was bitten by a brown hound while riding his bike.

"We were sure dreading the Pasteur shots," Mrs. Coleman exclaimed. "We were already
